THE TAX RECEIPT FRAUDS.

The Infamous Plot Against Pennsylvania.

Character and Operation of the Intended Democratic Election Frauds—Fictitious Names Inserted in Tax Lists to be Voted by Repeaters and Loafers—The Blanks Sent From the Tilden Headquarters—How It Was Discovered.

PHILADELPHIA, October 30.—The excitement in this city yesterday, occasioned by the exposure of the means which the Democracy intend to use to carry out their ideas of reform, has been intense, and was made doubly so when Chief of Police Jones examined the bundles of bogus tax-papers critically, and ascertained that they had been sent here direct from New York City. At three o'clock yesterday morning detectives Weyland and Royland who took the papers to the Democratic headquarters, as he was going into his residence at Fifteenth and Jefferson streets. Josephs innocently demanded why he was arrested, and when told made no answer, but requested to be taken to Mayor Stokely's residence, only a couple of blocks distant, where he said the Mayor would discharge him on his own recognizance. His Honor, however, refused to interfere in the matter, and Josephs was taken before a magistrate and held in $5,000 bail for appearance at court, Harry Daly, a prominent Democratic "ringster," becoming his surety. The fraud was discovered by Christian Kneass, Esq., Chairman of the Republican City Committee, who received information that the Democrats had asked different paper makers outside the State to furnish them with the paper necessary for carrying out the scheme. Failing to obtain it, emissaries were sent to the Tilden headquarters in Liberty street, New York city, where arrangements were made with a Connecticut paper maker to furnish the requisite blanks for $1,100. The blanks were sent from the Tilden headquarters to a person who went by the name of A. M. Walker, and who registered at the Merchants' Hotel on Cortlandt street. He, it is supposed, brought the papers to Philadelphia, where they were taken to the Democratic State headquarters, No. 1,014 Walnut street, by Samuel Josephs, and were being when captured by the Detectives. The wrapper inclosing the two bundles contained the following, written in lead pencil: "A. M. Walker, Merchants' Hotel, Cortlandt street," "A. M. Walker, Philadelphia," and scribbled on the side was "5 P. M. train, October 28, 1876." They were tied with a stout string, and bore no express company marks, showing that some person brought them here.

Arrested Samuel Josephs,

To show the monstrous character of the fraud, had it been carried out successfully, it is necessary to explain the election laws of the State, and show how the Democracy have been paving the way here, under the instructions of Tilden, in the "still hunt" scheme, to make it successful. The law requires all voters to be registered at least sixty days before the election, and the voter must have paid his State and county tax within two years, and at least thirty days before an election. A proviso in the Constitution states that no voter shall be deprived of his vote who fails to get on the registry list, and who produces his receipt for paid State and county taxes, which is termed "personal tax." Armed with this document, he can demand that his vote be received, and if his name be found on the Assessor's list it is a penal offense for election officers to refuse the vote. It will be seen at once, therefore, had the Tildenites carried their scheme into execution and had the bogus receipts printed, it would have been an easy matter to distribute the 50,000 throughout the city and State, upon which many fraudulent votes would be cast in the interest of "reform." There is no doubt that Pennsylvania would have cast her electoral vote for Tilden had this infamous plot not been Nipped in the Bud.

The bogus receipts would be placed in the hand of repeaters and bummers who had never paid for them and never could, and thus the Democratic majority would be swelled to enormous figures.

To further the scheme in the Democratic wards of the city, notably along the river front and in Sam Randall's district, the names of dead men, fictitious personages, names on tombstones, and those of aliens in sailor boarding houses have been placed on the registry and assessor's lists. Armed with tax receipts they would have voted, and the result would have been disastrous. It is calculated that at least fifteen thousand votes would have been polled in this manner in the city alone. The receipts can be used in any part of the State, and it is believed to have been the intention of the Democrats to have flooded the mining regions of Schuylkill, Carbon and Luzerne counties with the bogus papers, and to roll up immense majorities there for Tilden. With the great Democratic majorities thus secured in the State they might have overbalanced the Republican majorities of Philadelphia—which has saved the State more than once—and thus their victory would have been complete.

Who is A. M. Walker?

Mr. A. M. Walker arrived at the Merchants' Hotel, in Cortland street, New York, on Saturday morning, and left during the afternoon. He did not enter his name in the hotel register in the usual manner. He had some baggage with him, but the hotel clerk on duty did not pay particular attention to it, and could not remember what the nature of it was. He was described as being of ruddy complexion, with a brown mustache. Where Walker hailed from, or what his destination, was not known to the clerk.

Inspector Spieght, who was on duty at the Police Headquarters in this city yesterday, informed a Times reporter last evening that the police authorities of this city had taken no steps in the matter, not having been officially notified by the Philadelphia police that their assistance was required. A dispatch had been received by him last evening, from Chief of Police Jones, of Philadelphia, announcing that he had secured the papers intended for the fraudulent tax receipts.

CENTENNIAL NOTES.

The Exposition Open to Favored Visitors on Sunday—Large Attendance Yesterday.

PHILADELPHIA, October 30.—Notwithstanding the unyielding stand taken by the Centennial Commissioners against permitting the Exposition grounds to be open to the public on Sunday, it is estimated that between 4,000 and 5,000 visitors were present on the grounds and buildings yesterday, passing the gates on special passes. All buildings save the United States Government were open to the inspection of favored visitors.

The attendance at the Centennial to-day was very large. All trains and street cars bound for the grounds in the early part of the day were crowded with passengers. The cash admissions up to one o'clock to-day were 74,788.

The prospects for the success of a permanent exhibition in the Main building are considered flattering.

Cold-Blooded Murder.

ST. LOUIS, October 30.—A wanton and cold-blooded murder was committed in the western part of the city last night, the circumstances attending which, however, are somewhat confused. It appears that about eight o'clock in the evening a party of young men and boys were standing on a street corner, when three young men in a buggy drove by. There was something peculiar about the horse attached to the buggy, which caused the boys to hoot at it and utter coarse jokes. The men in the buggy pulled up, and considerable bad feeling followed, during which some one in the street crossed the reins in the bridle of the horse. This made the men very angry, and one of them jumped out of the buggy and demanded to know who did it. George Williams, a young man twenty-one years old, a looker-on, was pointed out as the practical joker, and the man from the buggy rushed at him. A scuffle ensued, during which a pistol was fired, and young Williams fell to the pavement and died in three minutes, a bullet having entered his back and passed out through the groin. The man re-entered the buggy at once, which was driven off at a furious speed, and was out of sight before the bystanders recovered from the shock they had received. After midnight Henry and Herman Dressing were arrested as two of the men engaged in the affair, and were lodged in the calaboose.

WHAT BUSINESS MEN SAY.

The Record of the Republican Party on Finances—Our Public Debt and General Taxation Largely Reduced—The Facts and Figures.

NEW YORK, October 30.—The Times publishes the following card from some of the leading bankers and business men of this city, which fully explains itself:

The undersigned merchants, bankers and business men of New York, respectfully submit the following statements for the information of all parties interested therein:

In 1865, Aug. 21, the National Debt reached its maximum amount	$2,756,431,591 43
Reduced June 30, 1876, to	2,099,439,344 99
A reduction, during this period of eleven years since the war of	$656,992,246 44
The annual interest charge for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1866, was	133,067,741 69
For the past year, ending June 30, 1876	100,243,271 23
A reduction in the annual interest charge since 1866 of	32,824,470 46
The annual expenditures of the Government in 1876, as compared with 1866, show a reduction of	262,349,619 66
And in Federal taxation more than	$300,000,000 00

Other great results of this financial policy have been that, despite the indebtedness of more than two thousand millions, and while diminishing taxation, the credit of the country has been raised to the unprecedented point, that its four and a half per cent. bonds, issued in redemption of the six per cents, have been selling rapidly, at home and abroad, above par in gold; and the Government has been enabled every year since 1866, not only to keep within its income, but to apply an average annual sum of $56,742,284.20 toward the payment of its indebtedness.

A careful consideration of these results of judicious management of the National Treasury during Republican administration of the Government, induces the undersigned to express their confident belief that a continuation of the same general policy which has so well sustained our commercial honor, and aided so powerfully in the preservation of the Union itself, would be best promoted by the election of Gen. Rutherford B. Hayes and William A. Wheeler to the offices of President and Vice President of the United States.

THE SOUTHERN CLAIMS.

An Ex-Confederate's Opinion on Tilden's Recent Letter.

NEW ORLEANS, October 30.—At a meeting to-night at St. Patrick's Hall, discussing Mr. Tilden's recent letter on Southern claims, Hon. J. Semmes, late Confederate State Senator, said: "Now, what do we expect in case of the success of Mr. Tilden? Do we hope to have our Confederate bonds or currency paid? Do we hope for compensation for emancipated slaves? Do we hope for compensation for the ravages of war? Do we hope for refunding the cotton tax? Do we hope for extravagant appropriations of public money as a douceur for withholding those demands? No. We hope for none of these things. No sensible man in the South ever dreamed of making such demands. I sincerely believe the South would vote against such demands."

A RAILWAY HORROR.

A Passenger Train Run Into by a Coal Train—Five Persons Killed and Thirteen Injured.

GOLDSBORO, Pa., October 30.—The four minutes past nine train from Scranton consisting of seventeen cars, was run into by the Summit coal train, one mile and a half north of Goldsboro station, on the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad, this evening. One car was burned and two telescoped. Five persons were killed and about thirteen wounded. A corps of surgeons attended to the wounded. The full particulars of the accident cannot be learned at present.

FRAUDS IN PHILADELPHIA.

A Deficiency of $300,000 in the Accounts of the City Treasury.

HARRISBURG, PA., October 30.—In July last, Auditor General Temple ordered a general investigation of the accounts of county and city officers within the commonwealth. Pursuant with this order B. M. Meade and Jno. McMurray, two clerks of the Auditor General's office, having examined the Philadelphia Mercantile Appraiser's list, have made their report to the Auditor General, which alleges that there is a deficiency of some $300,000 in the accounts of the Philadelphia City Treasury.

NEW ORLEANS, October 30.—Deputy United States Marshals Murphy and Thompson arrived this morning on the steamer Governor Allen from Bayou Sara, with fifteen prisoners, whom they had arrested in West Feliciana parish, charged with conspiracy and intimidation of negroes in July last. The prisoners, all of whom are white and Democrats, were arraigned before Commissioner Southworth, and held to bail in the sum of fifteen hundred dollars each to appear before the United States Court at the November term.

The War in Turkey.

Desperate Battle at Djunis.

CRUSHING DEFEAT OF THE SERVIANS.

Gen. Tchernayeff's Army Cut in Two and Demoralized.

A Great Panic in the Servian Capital.

THE WAR.

Revictualing Nicsics.

RAGUSA, October 30.—Monkhtar Pasha has sent a force of Turkish troops by way of the Duga pass to endeavor to revictual Nicsics.

A Battle at Djunis.

BELGRADE, October 30.—A battle was fought yesterday, in which the Turks drove the Servians from Djunis after a crushing defeat. Tchernayeff's army is cut in two and completely demoralized. Horvatovitch's command has retired on Kruchevatzi. A great panic prevails at Belgrade.

Particulars of the battle state that the Turks attacked the heights of Djunis. The Servian artillery, irritated at Gen. Tchernayeff's deprecatory manner, refused to fight and abandoned their positions, despite the efforts of the Russian officers. A body of Russian volunteers defended the heights desperately, half of their number being killed. The Turks carried their positions, thus cutting the Servian army in two. After the fall of Djunis Gen. Tchernayeff, with his staff and part of the army, retreated to Raganj, but have since returned to the neighborhood of Deligrad. Gen. Horvatovich's corps fought some time, but were finally completely beaten and driven back upon Kruchevatz and Deligrad. Its positions are now untenable. Last night patrols went through the streets of Belgrade, summoning sojourning Russian officers to proceed to the Minister of War, whence they were dispatched to the front. Prince Milan left for the army to-day, escorted by a body of Russians. The Prince had a long conference yesterday with M. Kurtzoff, Resident Russian Diplomatic Agent.

LONDON, October 31.—The Standard's dispatch from Deligrad reports that the Turks captured ten cannon and a large quantity of muskets and ammunition in their last battle at Djunis. The same paper's special from Belgrade does not single out the artillery as the most prominent in the defection on that occasion, but states that the Servian army, which was reduced to such a condition that the men were hardly able to crawl, openly declared it would fight no longer and abandoned its positions en masse. Tchernayeff telegraphed to Prince Milan, imploring him to come and prevent the army from crumbling entirely to pieces. The Prince conferred with M. Kartzoff five times during the night. It is impossible to make a stand at Cuparjia. At Deligrad, Rajanj and Paratchin, and all along the road, the wildest confusion prevails. The wounded, the wagons, the staff and deserters are mixed up in an execrable mass. The Circassians have appeared before Rajanj.

Conferences at Constantinople.

CONSTANTINOPLE, October 30.—General Ignatieff, Russian Ambassador, had an interview with the Sultan on Saturday, and with the Grand Vizier yesterday. Subsequently the ambassadors of the six powers had a conference. To-day the Turkish Minister held a council. The prevalent impression regarding the situation is pacific.

Servians Want Peace.

LONDON, October 31.—A dispatch from Belgrade says: At one this (Monday) morning M. Kartzoff, at the request of Prince Milan, sent a telegram to Livadia, asking that Gen. Ignatieff be instructed to obtain a six weeks' armistice, or in case he fails, that Russia should intervene on behalf of Servia.

Martial Law Proclaimed in Russian Districts.

The Paris Estafette has a report that military law has been proclaimed in the Russian districts of Kiev, Odessa, Kharkow and Caucusus, where lodgings for 50,000 troops are being prepared.

The Armistice Proposals.

LONDON, October 31.—A dispatch from Constantinople says it is said the Porte has accepted a proposal for a two months' armistice, with a proviso that if peace is not concluded within that time the armistice may be susceptible to two successive prolongations of six weeks each. It is further provided that hostilities cease throughout Servia, Montenegro, Bosnia and Herzegovina, and foreign military attaches proceed to the seat of war to settle the line of demarcation between the opposing forces.

The Standard's Vienna correspondent reports that according to an official telegram the terms of the armistice are being finally agreed upon, and their publication is hourly expected.

The Post gives prominence to the following article in an official form: We still entertain hopes, grounded upon much assurance, that the question of an armistice is settled, and a conference of the powers will be held shortly. We are not without authority in saying that the Czar has not only practically agreed to the Turkish proposals of an armistice, but also waived objection to Turkish participation in the conference. This assembly will, therefore, we assume, take place with the admission of Turkey as one of the assembled powers. The deliberations with respect to reforms will be chiefly conducted by the six powers. The result will be submitted to Turkey.

A Premature Announcement.

The Vienna correspondent of the Times says the announcement that the armistice has been settled is premature. The Porte was only expected to give a definite reply on Monday. There is, or was, anyhow, on Sunday, ground to believe that the reply will be fully satisfactory, that is, the Porte will accept the Russian proposition. The other powers have given adhesion to the conditions for a prolongation of the armistice proposed by Russia. England holds aloof. The Turks are thus left without a supporter of their views.

Servia's Position.

The Times' correspondent at Belgrade telegraphs that there is no longer any delusion that Servia is now at the feet of Russia or at the mercy of Turkey. Some of the officers are under orders to Kragojevatz, which is the arsenal of Servia. The Turks, however, ought to have passed Krogojevatz before reinforcements could arrive there. If they delay, further resistance by the Russian volunteers is probable. Intelligence, however, has been received by Russian officers that the Turks have received reinforcement to the amount of 20,000, and some batteries of artillery. The Circassian cavalry are burning villages near Paratchin and Cuprijia.

In Belgrade, after the first excitement, the usual apathy supervened, in consequence of the belief that the armistice was near at hand.

Prince Milan Taking the Field.

LONDON, October 31.—A Belgrade dispatch to the Daily Telegraph announces that Prince Milan will take command of the army to-day.

Russians Killed.

A special from Belgrade to the Daily News reports that of one thousand Russians engaged in the last fight at Djunis, seven hundred were killed. The Turkish batteries from Djunis are shelling the Deligrad camp. The Servians are quitting it for a safe position.

Ristics in Charge.

Minister Ristics is left in charge of the Government at Belgrade. He is empowered to treat for peace or an armistice if an opportunity arises. It is thought that he will seize the opportunity to make peace, and thus free the Government from the influence of Russia.

FRANCE.

Hatred Towards Germany.

NEW YORK, October 30.—A special from Paris states that at the grand concert yesterday at the Cirque D'Hiver, given under the direction of Pasdoloup, an attempt was made to perform Siegfried's Death March from Wagner's Nibelungen. The musicians had no sooner begun than the audience behaved disgracefully, hooting, and shouts of "a bas Wagner." The march concluded amid deafening and disgusting shouting. "Weber's Overture to Der Freischutz" shared a similar fate, so deepseated is the hate which the French heart bears toward Germany and German music.

That Slander Disposed Of.

PARIS, October 30.—The Figaro to-day publishes a letter from Du Sommeard, Chief Commissioner of France to the American Centennial Exposition, declaring that the letter printed in that journal on Friday attacking the management of the Exhibition, and containing other base charges, the authorship of which is attributed to him, is an utter fabrication. Du Sommeard puts his disavowal in the most formal and express terms.

Meeting of the Law-Makers.

VERSAILLES, October 30.—The session of the Chambers was opened to-day. There was no speech by President McMahon. The Senate adjourned until November 6th, and the Chamber of Deputies until the 3d prox.

GERMANY.

Opening of Parliament.

BERLIN, October 30.—The German Reichstag (Imperial Parliament for the whole empire) was opened to-day. The Emperor's speech was read by Herr Hofmans, His Majesty being absent on account of indisposition. The imperial speech mentions the general depression of trade and industry in Germany and throughout the world, and states that the object of the Government's commercial policy will be the protection of German industry from the prejudicial effects of one-sided custom regulations in other countries. This object will be kept specially in view in the impending negotiations for the renewal of commercial treaties. Germany's foreign relations, notwithstanding the difficulties of the present political situation, are fully accordant with the Emperor's pacific policy. His constant endeavor is to preserve friendly relations with all powers, especially those connected to Germany by ties of neighborhood and history, and as far as peace may be endangered among such to preserve it by friendly mediation. Whatever the future may have in store, Germany may rest assured that the blood of her sons will be sacrificed or risked only for the protection of her own honor and interests.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The Arctic Expedition.

LONDON, October 30.—The steamer Pandora, which sailed from Southampton for Smith's Sound, arctic regions, some months ago, for the purpose of bringing to England any dispatches which might have been deposited there by the Arctic expedition just returned, passed Crook Haven on her way to Portsmouth at noon to-day. All on board are well.

WEST INDIES.

The Recent Hurricane.

HAVANA, October 30.—Advices arriving gradually from the interior describe the effects of the last hurricane as very destructive. The sugar crop, which promised to be exceptionally abundant, will be much reduced.

SPAIN.

Insurgent Agitation.

LONDON, October 31.—A telegram from Bilboa, Spain, reports that small bands of insurgents recently appeared in the neighborhood of Ecartaciones, but have dispersed.

THE ROUSING RALLY.

Gen. Ben. Harrison at the Academy of Music.

An Immense Turnout and Enthusiastic Meeting—A Masterly Speech by Gen. Harrison—Gen. Negley Speaks for Errett and the Whole Ticket.

One of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings of the campaign was held in the Academy of Music last night. Long before the appointed hour for commencing the exercises every seat from bottom to top of the capacious building was taken. The Great Western Band discoursed some fine music previous to the arrival of the forces.

SECRETARIES.
Reporters of the Press.

Upon taking the chair Mr. Bennet said:

Gentlemen and Fellowcitizens—I thank you for this unexpected honor. Not being in the habit of making public speeches I will not here attempt it, but take this occasion to assure you that I feel it my duty toward my country to vote the whole Republican ticket, and hope you all will feel it your duty likewise. (Applause.) Allow me to introduce Mr. J. William Pope, who will favor us with a patriotic song.

Mr. Pope then sang "Hold the Fort for Hayes and Wheeler" in fine style, assisted by a quartette of male voices, accompanied by the band. So well was the audience pleased that he was obliged to come out again. This time he sang the "Two Democrats."

GENERAL HARRISON.

The Chair next introduced General Benjamin Harrison, of Indiana, who began his grand effort by saying:

I have been traveling through the East considerably lately, to let the people know that the Republican candidate for Governor of Indiana is not dead, which I hope will in some measure assure you that the Republican party of Indiana is not dead either. The victory of the Democrats was not so much of a victory after all. They held all the offices prior to the election, and the only change they made was in the election of that historic gentleman, "Blue Jeans" Williams, to the high position of Governor.

THE FIGURES.

Last year their majority was 17,000, this year only 5,000 plurality. Besides gaining four gallant Congressmen we reduced their majority over 12,000. If the rest of you do as well as Indiana, the next Congress will have a good working majority. We did not do as well as we expected, but we want it understood that we are not dead, but are like the old sea dog when asked, after his ship had struck the sands, if he had surrendered, answered back: "No sir; we have only begun to fight." If we did not take the citadel, we, like Sherman at Kennesaw Mountain, have pushed the enemy so hard that it will fall into our hands.

TOO MANY VISITORS.

At the next election we will only have to fight Indiana Democrats, and not detachments from all the States in the Union. We had some good Tilden reformers from your State to fight, for it is a notorious fact that, in the guise of Boys in Blue, some of the most graceless scamps came to our city and forgot to go home again until after the election. Those have all gone now, having work to do at home next week, leaving us to fight it out among ourselves. We will change the footings of the vote considerably.

THE REFORM PARTY.

The Democratic party, which is howling for reform so loudly just now, is like a man without credit going into the streets to sell his paper. He has no one to indorse for him, and no matter how much he tries to bolster himself up, there are no careful financiers who are willing to take his promises to pay. The record of the party is that of a bankrupt, having allowed thieves to break through and steal, not only the money of the nation, but its forts, its navy and its means of defence. While on the other hand the Republican party was born in the very throes of rebellion and financial ruin, and has at all times stood up for our national integrity, and has been the champion of the downtrodden of all nations. If the Democrats are not opposed to free schools they are anxious to abolish the study of modern history.

OUR CLAIM.

We do not claim that there has been no personal dishonesty in the Republican party. It is human to err, and natural for the vultures to collect about where the carrion is. Even the Apostle Paul was not perfect, but at the close of his carreer he could exclaim I have kept the faith, and have fought the good fight, but the Democrats are not able to appreciate the apostle, except that portion relating to stripes and imprisonment, to which some of them are familiar. No great move has ever been made by the Republican party but the Democratic has cried out "unconstitutional," "radical," "fanatical," but after awhile they come up and write it in their platform that we were right. It is because of the honesty and patriotism of the Republican party that our country is now in existence. Had Tilden and Hendricks had their way, we would have been a wrecked and scattered people. We have always held the doctrine that the Constitution of the United States has within itself the elements of self purification. We are in favor of reform, genuine reform. We say where there is an ulcer of corruption let the knife sink deep, deep enough to reach the roots. In short, "let no guilty man escape."

WHO IS MR. TILDEN.

He is one of those crooked minded men who, of all others, are calculated to mislead honest people. He has the power of making things appear straight when in reality they are crooked. He has been compelled to come out in a letter stating that he will not favor those Southern claims. Now, no sensible man will, for a moment, sus that Gov. Hayes will allow these to His record is satisfactory on that But the author of the celebrated Ken ter ought to favor those claims if he i to his convictions, unless he was ins when he wrote it. If he was sincere he said to Judge Underwood, of Ve that the Union soldiers were tres s in marching through the South, he o favor the Southern claims.

WILL HE BE ELECTED?

Will he be elected? No. We cannot afford to have the people of any State robbed of its political rights. North Carolina is as certainly Republican as Vermont, were it possible to get a fair expression of public opinion. But as it is, it is just as possible for me to turn the earth back upon its axis as for Tilden to be elected, except through the twin agencies of fraud and force. Our confidence in the people is such that we cannot believe; indeed we know that they will not permit such an outrage.

The foregoing are but a few of the leading points of the speech, which were so vociferously applauded all the way through. The speaker's manner was such to please all, while his sound logic and plain statement of facts carried conviction with them. We regret that we have not the space to devote a full report of his masterly and effective effort.

GENERAL NEGLEY.

After music by the band and songs by Mr. Pope, General Negley was called out. He excused himself from making a speech, but earnestly urged all to vote the whole ticket. For his part he was going to do so. While he had suffered wrongs at the hands of the Republicans, even from some of their candidates, he was going to support Russel Errett and the whole ticket. It is no time now to surrender those dear-bought victories, and it is necessary in order to save them to return a Republican Congress.

His remarks were enthusiastically received. There being no other speakers present, the meeting adjourned, with three rousing cheers for Hayes and Wheeler and three for Gen. Harrison.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1876

PETROLEUM at Antwerp 48f.

BONDS at Frankfort, new 5s, 102¼.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 109⅞.

SOME interesting reading will be found on our local page, as to how Democratic votes are manufactured in Allegheny.

IT is proposed to make the closing day of the Centennial Philadelphia day. The people of that city propose to make it a grand occasion.

IN opening the German Parliament, yesterday, the German Emperor declared his policy on the Eastern question to be that of neutrality, except in the event of the peace of Europe being endangered.

REMEMBER that this is the last week in which to work, and that every efficient word spoken, or act done, will tell on the final result. Every Republican should exert his utmost influence for his ticket.

THE Post still insists that it is essential that our merchants and manufacturers vote the Democratic ticket to hold Southern trade. The shot gun policy evidently belongs naturally to the Democratic party.

WE strongly urge our friends, wherever they are, not to neglect the Congressional and Legislative tickets. Vote for HAYES and WHEELER, but also for your Congressional and Legislative candidates. Stand up to the complete ticket.

THE New York merchants have made a statement of the reductions of the public debt, and the improvement of the national credit wrought out under Republican administration, and declare that the business interests of the country require the election of HAYES and WHEELER.

THE bogus tax receipt business, discovered in Philadelphia Saturday night, and fastened on the leading Democratic politicians, shows that there is no rascality which the Democratic party will shrink at. The attempt to deny it will not answer, as they were caught in the act. Such is Democracy.

THE developments in Philadelphia and New York clearly indicate that the general policy of the Democratic party is to attempt to carry elections by fraud. This is equivalent to a confession that they would be beaten on an honest vote. Let every honest Democrat separate from a party which proclaims reform, but practices fraud.

THE colored people of the country have just made General BUTLER, of Massachusetts, the present of a beautiful and costly sword, as a token of their esteem for him. They evidently entertain a high and very proper impression of the General's claims upon them, as he was the first practical emancipator, through his ingenious idea that slaves were contraband of war.

EX PRESIDENT WOOLSEY, of Yale College, presided at a Republican meeting, and made his first political speech for forty years, the other day. He made against TILDEN the point that he had been a most busy, persistent and tricky seeker after the Presidential nomination. As he considered that the high office should seek the man, he is for HAYES. A strong point, this.

IT has been noticed that Southern Catholic journals have been peculiarly bitter, of late, in their assaults on the Republican party, as the upholder of our common school system. It is now declared that a secret circular has been issued by the Jesuits, denouncing the Republican party. Whether this is true or not, it is very certain that the strength of that church goes for TILDEN.

THERE has been considerable excitement on account of a letter charging incendiarism and bad conduct generally on Americans in connection with the Centennial, in a French journal. The letter was, no doubt, very much out of order, both in its statements and spirit; but there are probabilities that its author will be removed from the position he holds in the French commission.

THE return of the British Arctic Exploring Expedition affords another instance of failure, so far as the discovery of an open polar sea is concerned, and adds to the disputes concerning the geography of the region. The islands and land points located by American explorers are, some of them, declared not to exist. Thus we are either mystified as to which report is correct, or are compelled to adopt the theory that the ice formations totally change, from year to year, the lines of coast. The latter is probably the correct theory.

THE proper Government authorities having ascertained that Mr. TILDEN actually received $50,000 from the Fort Wayne Road in 1869, wrote the proper officer of that company to see the books. A meeting of the Directors was called, Mr. TILDEN being one, and the request was refused. Could any action on his part have been more clearly indicative of the correctness of the Government information? Yet his income for that year was put at $15,000. Of course the Government will enforce its right, but had the facts not been as stated, who can doubt that the books would have been shown?

WE fortunately are under no necessity of having "opinions" as to the exact status of the editor of the Sunday Leader, in his relation to the Presbyterian Church,—the frequency with which his case has been inquired into constituting a fact by itself. The prurient, flashy, and false character of that journal has also been repeatedly referred to in the bodies of the church. Worse than all,—than its Sabbath breaking, and its undenied violation of the statute law,—is its endorsement of the worst phases of Jesuitical Roman Catholicism. With all this as a dead weight, it it is not surprising that the Synod thinks the time has come to get rid of him.

SAYS the New York Times, as to the business bearing of the election, in that State, that the town of Syracuse, one company, with $100,000 or more capital, will start in that city if HAYES is elected, but will not start if TILDEN is chosen. If the company begins work, it will employ one hundred or one hundred and fifty men. This is a case which is not rare. A similar case was noted last week in Olean, in New York. The reasoning of the men with money to invest is very simple. If HAYES is elected and a Republican Congress, we know very nearly what will happen. There will be a steady improvement. If TILDEN and the Southern Democrats come in, no one can know what the future will be. One event will give confidence. The other cannot do so.

THE New York Tribune, in answering the charge of inconsistency as to its own course, as between 1872 and 1876, says some things that Liberals should heed. "The Democratic party has not lived up to the high doctrine which it preached in 1872. It has violated its pledges; it has renounced its faith; it has gone back to its old idols. It is true that it reaffirms in the St. Louis platform its faith in the Constitutional amendments, but its practice is not on a level with its preaching. In the South it neither accepts the equality of all men before the law nor protects impartial suffrage. It does not allow the negro to vote as he pleases. In South Carolina, Louisiana, Mississippi, and other Southern States, its followers have endeavored to starve out those who are unwilling to vote with them and to frighten them away from the polls. The party has had its opportunity and has wasted and abused it. The tendencies of its legislation have been narrow, dishonest, and disloyal. It makes a sham pretense of civil service reform and sharpens its teeth for public spoils."

PARTY DESPERATION.

The Democratic press, as soon as the evidence of fraud in registration in New York had been developed, charged that equal frauds were being perpetrated by Republicans in Philadelphia. There was no denial that New York was to be captured by fraudulent registrations, but the claim was that Philadelphia would offset it. The sudden discovery of the evidence of the most extensive preparations, on the part of the Democracy, to vote 50,000 of their repeaters, on fraudulent tax certificates, shows that even Philadelphia was to be swamped in the same way; and that there is no limit to the efforts of the Democracy to cheat the people out of an honest election. It is an old dodge, under cover of charges of corruption, hurled with every possible energy at an opponent, to practice the identical fraud charged against him. The Democratic party is entirely expert in this line of business. The coffee-pot naturalization operations of Mr. WALLACE are in point. But a bolder, more extensive, or more audacious effort to entirely swamp the honest vote of the people was never made than that brought to light in Philadelphia. Our Executive Committee should be on the alert against such maneuveres here. It is well known that arrangements have been made to vote persons on tax receipts, in the interest of Democratic candidates this year in Pittsburgh and Allegheny. We have information of persons, inmates of Roman Catholic charitable institutions, having been registered in the interest of the Democratic party. All this points to a possible attempt to fraudulently carry the Democratic ticket in Allegheny county. In New York there is but little concealment in the fraudulent preparations being made. Having the election boards, the work is to be pushed through without fear.

All this illustrates the desperation of the Democratic party, and should show our people just what we have to contend with. The Democracy understand that they cannot honestly carry the country, and thus are deliberately at work to organize a gigantic system of fraud, to overwhelm the honest vote of the people. The parallel, in spirit and purpose, between the election this year and in 1860, is very striking. Then the Democracy were bent on rebellion, and desperately directed events to that end. Now they are equally bent on making the country pay the rebel losses of the war, and to this end need the control of the Government. Their policy is perfectly clear. At the South, terrorism and murder; at the North, fraud. By the use of such means they hope to conquer. It is against such operations that the honest people of the country are called to contend. The permanency of the Republic is endangered,—as, once the control of the Presidency is allowed to be secured by fraud, and the strength of the ballot is gone. The election involves a crisis, in which every true man must stand up to his duty.

"CHANGE."

The pith of the Democratic argument, in behalf of the election of TILDEN is, that we have need of change, in the administration of government. That so much corruption has crept into the Republican party, that if the Democracy, in some particulars are not all they should be, we will better ourselves by giving them power; that at all events, they will reform the administration, and secure honest officials. Governor HAYES distinctly pledges himself to this,—the difference between him and TILDEN being, that he would only weed out the incompetents, while TILDEN would drive out all Republican appointees, and fill their places with Democrats. Even in the item of purifying the public service, so far as its personnel is concerned, there will be better results from HAYES' election than can possibly attend the success of TILDEN. But it is well to pause, and ask whether the mere change of officials is all there will be in this election?

The Democratic party is really trying to seize the Government by force, under the theory that the people are so disgusted with the turmoil and trouble of the past, that they desire peace, even at the hazard of permitting their disturbers the possession of power. Fraud is force; and the attempt at fraud involves the forcible seizure of the rights of the people. Intimidation and murder at the South represent the same idea. They involve the seizure of the people's rights through intimidation. Thus, the Democracy, acting as brigands, seek to seize upon and control the country. Have our people thought what such "changes" mean? Can any one suppose that captured power will be used subsequently to the wishes of the captured? On the contrary, the fact that they could seize power, in the face of adverse circumstances, would afford them evidence that they could hold it,—and the desperation that gained power, would prompt to the enjoyment of the advantages of power. What, then, would be their national course? To repay themselves their losses,—and make good the years during which they had none of the emoluments of power. The bankruptcy of the country would follow the payment of Southern claims; and the payment of those claims would certainly follow the election of TILDEN.

We are answered that TILDEN has pledged himself against those claims. We reply his life is more that his word; and his career proves that he has always acted and still acts with the worst elements of his party. Look at his subserviency to the Catholics in New York, particularly in the Grey Nun matter. He is absolutely in the power of the Jesuits, and will have the full voting strength of that organization. He was the prime mover in the frauds that counted in HOFFMAN as Governor of New York; was the friend and companion of TWEED as long as it paid to be; is practically his friend to-day. Has JOHN MORRISSEY for an intimate friend and associate. These are undeniable facts. What benefits, therefore, can come from a change, which will introduce such elements to power?

CONGRESS AND LEGISLATURE.

There is one fact we wish to strongly impress on the minds of all Republican voters. It is that in this State, the chief struggle of the Democracy is to gain Congressmen and members of the Legislature. Here is where their efforts are principally concentrated. They do not expect to carry this State for TILDEN, unless by fraud, and hence their strength centres on Congress and Legislative members. If they can retain their hold in the House, they hope to gain monetary and other advantages not otherwise attainable. And the possession of the House is a leverage toward ultimate national power. As to the Legislature, aside from the advantage of controlling that organization, is the possibility of a vacancy in the United States Senatorship to be filled. Senator CAMERON is old and feeble, and his death is not an impossibility. All this comprises part of Democratic calculations, and should not be left out of ours. Hence they are struggling with all their power, to gain all they possibly can in both the directions named. We fully believe they will fail quite completely in this State. Nevertheless, it is neither safe nor wise to yield, under any circumstances, nor for any purpose, a single vote to them. In the Twenty-seventh District, two years ago, the Democratic Congressman was elected in a Republican District by a majority of 11,—secured by complimentary votes entirely. The seeking after complimentary votes has grown into a system, and thousands of such appeals are made in every District. Refuse them all. If you are a sincere Republican, you should vote your principles,—not your compliments.

It is also well to bear in mind that men elected by complimentary votes do not return the compliment when they vote on public measures in Congress. For example, there were at least two votes given by Mr. HOPKINS in Congress, which might have been adapted to the wishes of those whose complimentary votes elected him. On the question of granting amnesty to JEFF. DAVIS, after the full and undenied exposure of the fact that he sustained WINDER in the worst atrocities of Andersonville, there could be no doubt as to the wishes of Mr. HOPKINS' Republican constituents. He voted to amnesty DAVIS! On the proposition to repeal the law for supervising national elections for the prevention of fraud, he voted steadily in favor of the repeal. Not one of the Republican constituents desired this. He did not consult them, and paid no attention to them, but simply went with his party in those obnoxious and corrupt measures. In the nature of things this is what every Democrat will do. We therefore urge every Republican to stand up to his ticket clearly and fully. Give no complimentary votes of any kind, but stand to your ticket throughout. Especially do we urge this with reference to the Congressional and Legislative ticket.

POLITICAL NOTES.

THE "reformers" are determined to win if they have to burst every ballot-box in the country with fraudulent votes to do it.

THE army of claim agents at Washington City simply laugh at Tilden's letter as one which he could not possibly act upon.

THE Democratic bluster about carrying Wisconsin has deceived nobody, and the blowers themselves are now confessing that they have about given up the State. They will give up several more the day after election.

EX-PRESIDENT WOOLSEY's remark that Gov. Tilden is seeking the Presidency with a "most uncommon anxiety" has caused a good deal of Democratic disgust, but no "reformer" has been bold enough to attempt a denial of the charge.

THE tenth offender of that ruffian association, the Molly Maguires, has been sentenced to be hung in Pennsylvania. What has been done with the well-dressed, respectable assassins of Hamburg, the high-toned chivalry that went out to hunt negroes like rabbits?

Now that Mr. Tilden has taken to letter-writing, perhaps he will find time to reply to Mr. Greeley's letter in 1869, in which he asserted that the present Democratic candidate for President was as responsible for the election frauds of 1868 as Tweed, or Hall, or the rest of his associates in the Tammany ring.

THE Republican who is intending to vote for Tilden and Hendricks next week cannot spend the present week more profitably than in thinking upon the consequences of his vote. If one day's reflection does not convince him of the folly of leaving his party at a time like this, he never was much of a Republican.

THE last Democratic candidate for the Presidency publicly said to the present Democratic candidate for the Presidency: "You are as deeply implicated in the stupendous election frauds of 1868 as though your name were Tweed, O'Brien or Oakey Hall." This Mr. Greeley publicly declared over his own signature, on October 29, 1869. Did or did not Horace Greeley lie?

THERE is hardly a conspicuous soft money Democrat in the West who has not come out for Tilden and reform. Among the more prominent are Tom Ewing, ex-Governor Allen, and Landers, of Indiana. It is anticipated that Sam. Cary, on the eve of the November election, will publish a card advising Democrats to vote for Tilden, as in October he advised Ohio Democrats to vote the straight Democratic ticket.

THAT was a most cruel suggestion made by a New Jersey Republican to a knot of Democrats on the ferry-boat the other day. They were rejoicing in Mr. Tilden's letter. "Yes, it is a sharp trick," said the Republican; "while his agents are out buying up claims all over the South, he seizes the occasion to bear the market." The Democrats became piously indignant, but were asked, "Would that be worse than to pack New York and Brooklyn full of repeaters?" At that point the friends of reform changed the subject.

PRESIDENT WOOLSEY objects to Mr. Tilden because of the direct assault he has made on the Presidency to capture it. Mr. Tilden is not only spending large sums of money, as he is believed to have done at St. Louis, but he resorts to the lowest means of puffing his own virtues as a statesman through the medium of an advertising agency. He should remember the fate of the rich Roman patriarch who bought the Imperial crown of the Prætorian Guard. The corrupt rogue did not long wear the Imperial purple.

THE comments of the Southern press upon Governor Tilden's letter on rebel claims are pretty good evidence that the charges are not so groundless as they might be. Here is The Macon (Ga.) Telegraph and Messenger distinctly announcing the purpose of the South to seek the refunding of the cotton tax. It says: "Tilden comes out with a sweeping declaration against all Southern war claims, including even the refunding of the unconstitutional and oppressive cotton tax. We think Tilden has gone too far in this matter. The cotton tax, which was a punitive tax and wholly unconstitutional, ought to be refunded after the question has passed the ordeal of the courts and of Congress, and no President ought to oppose an executive veto to a clear measure of justice and rectitude, so decided, simply because that measure inures to the benefit of quondam rebels and insurrectionists, so called."

An Incident in the Life of Alexandre Dumas.

[From the Pall Mall Gazette.]

Although it has no reference to the subject of Bulgarian atrocities, an incident in the life of the late Alexandre Dumas may not be without interest. M. Alphonse Karr had just established himself at Nice when M. Dumas happened to be passing through that town, and was cordially invited to dinner by his old friend. Next day accordinglp the author of the "Three Musketeers" presented himself at the appointed time, in company with twenty-two acquaintances whom he had picked up that morning in his walks abroad, and whom it seemed to him the most natural thing in the world to bring to dinner at his friend's house. A Russian princess was also of the party, and everything went off as merrily as a marriage bell.

At desert the Princess drew a diamond ring from her finger and begged Dumas to write his name on her glass, a request to which the great novelist gallantly acceeded. Then one after another of the twenty-two preferred the same petition, which was cheerfully granted, and each guest took away his glass in remembrance of the pleasant evening they had passed together. Mr. Karr looked on approvingly, but he may have been meditating at the same time over the cost of twenty-two handsome glasses, which had all been borrowed for the occasion.

A more whimsical adventure is said to have befallen another distinguished French writer who had lingered with a friend somewhat longer than usual over the afternoon absinthe at a cafe. "Let us go and dine," he said at length, when thirty or forty gentlemen instantly rose to accompany him. They too had lingered, having intended for reasons of their own to abstain from dinner that day, when they suddenly heard those words of cheer, and interpreted them into a general invitation to dinner. M. Dumas could alone have done justice to the situation.

GHASTLY STATISTICS.

Suicide and Murder in the United States.

There is a grand series of charts showing the vegetable conditions and resources of the country, the proportion of forest and arable land, of sugar and textile crops, and the price of farm labor. A very curious and sinister study, says the Atlantic Monthly, is offered by a table which hangs beside those of the United States census, showing by means of colored parallelograms the positive and relative degrees of homicide and suicide in different parts of the country. In the eastern portion suicide appears to be six times as frequent as murder. In the western there is a rather larger proportion of the latter, and about two-thirds less of the former. The south presents a broad field of homicide, nearly twice as large as that of all the rest of the country, with a very narrow strip of self-destruction. In New York and New Jersey suicide is as about three to one of murder; in Pennsylvania about two to one; in Delaware and Maryland just the reverse of these, murder exceeding suicide by one-third and one-half. Homicide in the District of Columbia is appalling, compared with its population; there appears to be little disposition to felo de se. In Virginia the suicide is about a quarter of the homicide; in West Virginia the two crimes are nearly equal, suicide preponderating slightly. In the Carolinas murder is to suicide as three to one; in Florida the number of both is much larger in proportion to the population, but the excess of homicide over suicide remains as three to one. In Texas the area of murder is something awful, unless one can pitch ones mood to the key of De Quincey's famous essay; it is ten times as great as suicide. In Nevada the proportion of the latter is about one-fifth of the former. In California there is a vast amount of both, suicide preponderating; can it be because of the homesick Chinese? With regard to murder, the distribution is not difficult to understand, but it seems impossible to get at any general laws respecting suicide. The proportion of female suicides varies very much in the different States; but generally falls far short of the male suicides. In Delaware, the District and Oregon there are no female suicides; in Minnesota and North Carolina the number nearly equals that of the other sex; in South Carolina it is considerably in excess; in Florida it is very small. There is a ghastly fascination in these statistics and the speculations which they suggest.

Decline of Ecclesiastical Magnificence.

(From the London Spectator.)

The decay of ecclesiastical magnificence all over the world has been so rapid of late years that men begin to forget that magnificoes of the Church, men who vied with the greatest nobles in the "sustained splendor of their stately lives," ever existed. They read Dr. Liddon's account of Bishop Strossmayer's grandeur, of his revenue of £50,000 a year ($250,000), exceeding in that region the revenue of a Duke of Northumberland in England; of his palace, much grander than Fulham; of his picture galleries, gardens and farms; of the one hundred horses in his stables, and his open tables, with seventy-five guests daily; of his almost princely rank among Catholics in Crotia and Bosnia, and of his immense political power, with a kind of dreamy feeling, as if it could not be true, or as if the good bishop had in some way wrongfully acquired all this magnificence. Bishop Strossmayer, however, only lives as his predecessors lived, on the proceeds of lands granted to his See, and his splendor is only remarkable because it is now retained by so few ecclesiastics.

The Primate of Hungary is, we believe, still richer; and one or two of the Austrian Bishops have still princely revenues and estates; but outside the Hapsburg dominion there is no ecclesiastical grandeur of the old, full bodied kind remaining in the world. Less than a hundred years ago, Europe was full of great clerics; five or six of them were sovereign princes, twenty at least were ruling viceroys and statesmen, and some scores ranked in wealth and position and influence on affairs with the greatest nobles and Ministers of State. Now there is not one ecclesiastic left in Europe—except the Bishop of Urgel, who retains some feudal rights over Andorra—possessed of power to send an offender to prison, or of any direct share in the government of a state—unless the Bishop of Vizen is still in the Cabinet of Lisbon—or of any legal immunities not belonging to the meanest subject.

The clerical electors no longer rule, the sovereign bishoprics have been secularized, the cardinals no longer reign as absolute viceroys in the legations, and outside Austria, and we fancy one or two South American dioceses, the Archbishop of Canterbury, shorn and impoverished as he is, is probably the richest prelate. Great bishops in Germany are content with £1,200 a year ($6,000), many in France live on £600 ($3,000), most of those in Spain do not get their stipends, and the Italian bishops are hardly better off than fairly paid civil officers.

Would Have Genuine Shingle Nails or None at All—No Shoe-Pegs for Him.

(From the Detroit Free Press.)

Soon after noon yesterday a stranger entered a Woodward avenue hardware store and asked if they kept shingle-nails there. Being informed that they had a dozen kegs on hand, he further inquired:

"Are they genuine shingle nails, or only imitations?"

"They are shingle nails, of course."

"Let me see them."

A handful was placed on the counter before him, and he took several nails to the door where he could get a stronger light. After scanning them thoroughly he tested two or three between his teeth, tried to bend them between his fingers, and said:

"Well, they seem to be all right, and I'll take five pounds. I don't want to appear captious, but I bought some shingle-nails along here somewhere about a month ago, carried them home, and what do you suppose they turned out to be?"

"Sixpennys?" answered the clerk.

"No, sir. They were shoe-pegs, sir!"

"That was strange," mused the clerk.

"And another time, when I ordered shingle-nails," continued the stranger, "the clerk put up four stove handles, three nutmeg graters, and a coffee mill. Can I build a cow shed out of coffee mills? Can I shingle a barn with stove handles? Can I clapboard a smoke-house with nutmeg graters?"

"Curious mistake that," said the clerk.

"And another time, when I asked for shingle-nails, they put me up four corn-poppers and a match-safe. These things have sunk deep into my soul, and you must not blame me for seeming particular. Now, these are nails, are they?"

"Of course."

"Shingle-nails?"

"Yes, sir."

"Just write it on this card, and give me your name, the name of the firm, the number of the store, and the date of the month. I don't want to make trouble, but if I find when I get home that you have put me up bath brick and harness snaps in the place of shingle-nails, I'll come back here and make it warm for you!"

Queer Railway Decision.

A singular railway decision was rendered in an English court a fortnight ago. A gentleman named Hamer sued the Lancashire & Yorkshire Railway Company to recover 4s. 6d. expenses incurred by him owing to the unpunctuality of a train. The plaintiff set out from Blackpool on September 7 by a train which arrived at Manchester a few minutes before 11 o'clock, instead of 10:15—the advertised time. He missed connection with the last train from Oxford-road Station and took a cab to Stretford, walking thence to Ashton-on-Mersey. He claimed from the company the cab fare from Victoria Station to Stretford. It was urged that the delay of the train arose in consequence of their being a great number of passengers, and moreover that there was no special contract in the case. The judge held that the company were bound by their time-tables, unless they could show reasonable excuse for the non-performance of their contract. Here there was no excuse, such as the break-down of an engine or a truck getting across the line. As regarded the number of passengers, the company should have put on an additional train or have done something to enable them to keep their contract with the public. Judgment was, therefore, for the plaintiff with costs, the judge adding that, had he been the plaintiff, he should have certainly taken a cab all the way to his home instead of to Stretford. This English judge ought to be imported for the benefit of the American traveling public.

"I Knew You by Your Limp."

A tutor of one of the Oxford Colleges who limped in his walk was some years after accosted by a well-known politician, who asked him if he was not the chaplain of the college at such a time, naming the year. The doctor replied that he was. The interrogator observed, "I knew you by your limp." "Well," said the doctor, "it seems my limping made a deeper impression than my preaching." "Ah, doctor," was the reply with ready wit, "it is the highest compliment we can pay a minister, to say that he is known by his walk, rather than by his conversation."—Exchange.

Mrs. Governor Hayes.

Correspondents speak of the extremely favorable impression that the beautiful wife of Gov. Hayes is making at the receptions in Philadelphia. Since we have learned from sad and satisfactory experience the importance of having a true lady in the Nation's Executive Mansion, perhaps a word about Mrs. Governor Hayes may be pardoned at this time. This accomplished woman, like her husband, is of patriotic revolutionary stock. She was liberally educated in one of the best collegiate institutions in Ohio, having completed the regular college course of study. During the war, her ceaseless devotion to the interests and wants of the Union soldiers and their families made her name loved and revered by them. When her husband was dangerously wounded she sought him literally on the field of battle, and, while herself nursing and dressing his wounds, lived in camp on the hard fare of the common soldier. In the work of enlarging the public charities of the State, and in all benevolent and humane undertakings, the Governor of Ohio found the power that prevailed in his own household. This best type of womanhood unites the highest of the home virtues with all the accomplishments that society asks or can ever find in those favored few who fill the proudest positions of influence and power in the land.

Latest Advices Concerning Money and Stock Matters.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, October 31, 1876.

Monday is usually a somewhat quiet day at the banks, settling day being past. The status of business continues as it was through much of last week; there being nothing of special interest occurring. The demand opened moderately strong yesterday, but does not indicate a permanent change for the better in business. There is, however, a renewed feeling of hopefulness developing, basing itself upon the growing belief that the Republican national ticket will pull safely through. Rates remain the same, and the general situation is substantially unchanged.

ACCOMMODATION BILLS.

Some time ago a correspondent of the London Times had an article in that paper on the enormous amount of accommodation bills made and the many frauds arising therefrom, and suggested as a plan for the prevention of such evils and their losses that there should be some sure means of ascertaining the amount of the liabilities, either as acceptor, drawer, or indorser, of any firm or individual requiring assistance from the discount market. To that end he proposed a clearing discount establishment, in which should be registered daily all bills discounted or advanced upon, by slips which should be supplied by the different members of the clearing house, and that each member should have the exclusive privilege of ascertaining, at any moment, the total amount for which any firm is liable. Such a plan, without doubt, would be effective, but, as it would be cumbersome and costly, and require an immense amount of labor, its general acceptance is perhaps doubtful. Another plan, however, has been suggested, which, from its greater simplicity and its being less liable to objection on the score of unduly exposing the business of the banks, would perhaps be more likely to meet with favor. It is as follows: Each member of the clearing house to have the right to present any name or names to the manager with a request to be informed of the aggregate amount of such paper held by the other banks of the association. Upon receiving such a request it should be the duty of the manager to furnish slips for information to the several banks, and upon receiving the answers to communicate the total to the inquiring bank, but in no case to specify the amount held by any one individual bank. Some such plan as this, with such modifications and additions as may be necessary, it is believed would prevent many of the failures and losses which so interfere with business and discourage legitimate credit.

BROKERS' DUTIES TO PRINCIPALS.

At New York on Saturday in a suit of George F. Britton, assignee, against William Hastings, tried before Judge J. F. Daly in Common Pleas, the plaintiff's counsel withdrew from the suit, and the Court directed a verdict for defendant. Shipman & Merserau claimed $1,300 for negotiating a $20,000 mortgage, as brokers, under an agreement that they should have all they sold at for over $16,200. They arranged for its sale at $17,500, but the sale fell through for reasons with which they had no connection, and under which it was admitted that they were not deprived of a right to their brokerage. But it appeared by their own testimony that they had made the arrangement to sell the mortgage for $17,500 before they made their bargain with the defendant, and that they did not disclose the fact to him. The Court therefore ruled that they could not recover as brokers, since a broker was bound to act for his principal's interest and not for his own or another's, and in this case they were acting for their own interest and not for the defendant's.

AN ENGLISH INDUSTRY COMING TO THIS COUNTRY.

One of the largest steel manufacturing firms in Sheffield is about to establish its factory near Syracuse, New York, and addresses its customers to that effect. This is not the only industry in Sheffield which will have to remove to America, if it wishes to retain any of the American trade; and file and cutlery manufacturing show a similar condition. By the returns of the last quarter—and, by the way, the returns of the English industries are published once a quarter, so as to be of some practical value, instead of in a decennial census—it is shown that the exportation of steel from Sheffield to the United States had fallen off to an amount no less than $125,000, while on cutlery it was $80,000 and on files $10,000. This decrease has been going on steadily for the last four years, and the end is about reached of trade with the United States. American manufacturers now make as good steel, files and cutlery as English, and plus the freight and duties, are cheaper.

NEW YORK, October 30, 1876.

Money closed easy at 2½@3; prime mercantile paper 5@6. The customs receipts were $454,000. The Assistant Treasurer disbursed $478,000. The clearings were $16,000,000. Sterling was dull at 482@484. Gold was dull and steady at 109⅞. The carrying rates were 1 to 3. Loans were also made flat. Governments were active and strong. In railroad bonds there was an advance in Wabash seconds and convertible, the former rising to 70 and the latter to 53, while firsts declined from 75, the price this morning, to 72½. The other railroad mortgages sold this afternoon showed an advance of ½ per cent., except St. Paul sinking funds, which went off to 86 1-4. The stock market opened strong in tone for the general list, prices in the majority of cases being higher than at the close on Saturday. The greatest improvement was in coal roads, Delaware, Lackawanna & Western advancing from 73⅞ to 75⅜, New Jersey Central from 36⅜ to 37⅞, and Delaware & Hudson Canal from 71½ to 72. Lake Shore advanced from 61⅞ to 62¼, with a subsequent reaction to 61⅞. Michigan Central rose from 50⅞ to 51, and recovered to 50⅞. Wabash was strong, and advanced from 7 to 7½. Western Union fell to 73¼, with liberal sales at 73¼. Hannibal & St. Joseph common advanced from 15 to 15½, Erie from 11 1-8 to 11½, Northwest common from 38½ to 38⅞, and preferred 61¼ to 61½. New York Central was steady at 104 1-2@104⅞. St. Paul common declined from 25 to 24 1-4, and preferred from 55 3-4 to 55 1-4, but later rose to 24⅞ and 55⅞ respectively. The market continued strong, with coal stocks the special feature, until the last half hour. Prices then began to decline, and before the close had fallen ½@1½ per cent., the latter Delaware, Lackawanna & Western. New Jersey Central fell 1⅞ per cent., and Lake Shore, Michigan Central and Western Union ½. At the close the market was weak, some very heavy sales having been pressed just before the close. The late decline was caused by rumors that some railroad meeting to-day had adjourned without affecting anything so far as railroad business is concerned. The meeting which is to settle or continue the railroad war has not yet taken place. It is understood it will take place this week, perhaps to-morrow. In final sales New York Central declined to 104½, Lake Shore to 61, Northwest to 38½, preferred to 61, St. Paul to 24⅞, preferred to 55⅞, Wabash to 7½, Delaware & Hudson to 72½, Delaware, Lackawanna & Western to 74¼, New Jersey Central to 36⅝, Michigan Central to 49⅞, Pacific Mail to 24½, and Western Union to 72⅞.

After the close of business a special dispatch from London was received which stated that the Vienna Bourse was agitated on rumors that Roumania had declared war against Turkey.

The transactions aggregated 165,000 shares, of which 6,000 were Pacific Mail, 26,000 Western Union, 17,000 St. Pauls, 3,000 Erie, 28,000 Lake Shore, 8,500 Toledo & Wabash, 5,000 Michigan Central, 21,000 Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, and 15,000 New Jersey Central.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS—WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, October 30, 1876.

The general merchandise markets have been moderately active during the past week, but devoid of anything new or particularly important. The feeling in Breadstuffs is easier, although there is a very fair local trade, and prices are still maintained. No change to note in Groceries, with the exception of Sugars, which are higher. The Hog products are weaker, and the indications are that prices will rule lower. Butter continues very dull, while there is a steady demand for Eggs and Cheese at full prices. Petroleum very dull, but it is hoped there will soon be a change for the better. Pig Iron quiet and steady, with a fair consumptive demand. Wool firm, and prices are tending upward.

APPLES—There is an increasing demand, but the supply continues largely in excess of the present wants, hence prices are no better, ranging from $1 a1,50 ⅌ bbl, as to quality and condition.

ALE—There is no change to note in prices and trade is generally reported dull, like everything else, affected by the hard times. X $8 ⅌ bbl to the city and $9 to country; XX $10; India $11. half bbls in proportion.

ASHES—High test Soda Ash, 3a3¼; low test, 2½a2¾; Manganese, 6a6½; Arsenic, 8c; Nitrate Soda, 3½a3¾; Fluor Spar, 1¾a2; Black Lead, 3¾a4.

BEANS—There is a fair demand, and the market is reported steady at $1,30a1,40 for old crop and $1,50a1,60 per bushel for new. The supply just now is small, as the old are nearly cleaned up and it is most too soon for new.

BUTTER—The receipts continue liberal and the supply is larger now than it has been at any time, probably, this year; nearly all the commission houses are full, and with a very light demand, the supply steadily accumulating and dealers anxious to realize, prices are weak and lower. Prime rolls, 27a28c; choice do, 24a25c; creamery, 28a30c; solid packed, 15a20c for fair to choice and 9a12c for inferior to common. The course of the market (particularly for prime Butter) is likely to change before long as the decline will no doubt check consignments to this point, and, moreover, dealers report that a large percentage of the Butter coming forward now is not of first-class quality.

BEESWAX—In steady demand at 30a35c ⅌ lb.

BROOMS—We note a moderate demand at the new price list. Manufacturers in anticipation of the new crop of Corn have reduced prices to the lowest point known since before the war. We quote "Union" factory as follows:

No 1 Hurl—plain handle	$1,50
No 2 Hurl do	1,75
No 3 Hurl—painted	2,00
No 4 Hurl do	2,25
No 5 Hurl	2,50
No 6 Hurl	2,75
No 3 carpet—velvet finish	3,25
No 4 carpet do	3,50
No 5 carpet do	3,75
Wisps (6, 8 and 10 inch)	1 25a1 50
Toy Brooms	1 25a1 50

BELTING—The market for this article remains steady, and the demand is now confined chiefly to that made from good bark tanned Leather, most parties having found that the several patent and chemical tannages of leather for belting purposes, at the lower prices at which such are sold, are dearer in the end. We quote:

Inch.	Per Foot	Inch.	Per Foot
1	$ 06	5	$ 54
1½	12	5½	60
2	18	6	66
2½	24	7	78

3½	36	10	1 14
4	42	12	1 38
4½	48	14	1 62

Discount 15 to 30 per cent, as to quality and quantity.

BRUSHES—White Scrubbing, $10a11 ⅌ gross Gray, $11a20; White Bristle, $22a36; Shoe, $13a40; Horse (wood backs) $22a66; Horse (leather backs) 45a135; Extra white-wash, $36a75; Common do, $24 a60.

BROOM HANDLES—We quote in a jobbing way:

No 1 Plain	$16 00 ⅌ thousand
No 1 Painted	24 00	do
Toy Painted	12 50	do

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—3½a4c ⅌ pound.

BROOM CORN—Choice green brush that will work up, 5½a6; choice hurl, 6½a7c; medium, 5½c for green, and 5½c for red tipped. Covers and insiding, 4a5c; crooked, 2½a3½.

COOPERAGE—Continues very dull, and prices are weak and drooping. Circled Heading, 20c per sett; square do, $40 per m for dry and $35 for green. Best Indiana staves, $30; medium do, $28; long bucked West Virginia, $20a22; rough do, $18. Oil Barrels dull but unchanged; countries, $1,05; city make, $1,20.

CEMENT, &C., &C.—There is a fair business within the range of the following quotations: Cement—Rosendale, $2,50a2,75; New Lisbon, $1,80a2,05; Portland, $6a7 ⅌ bbl; Youghiogheny, $1,75a2; Louisville, $1,90a2,10. Calcined Plaster—French's $3,75a4; Land Plaster, $2,25a2,50. Lime, $1,35a1,50. White Sand, $1,40a1,50 ⅌ bbl.

COAL—Bituminous is quotable at 6½a7½ ⅌ bu, delivered. Anthracite, $5 ⅌ ton for broken egg by the carload and $8½a8¾ delivered.

CORDAGE AND ROPE—Sisal and Manilla Rope have both been advanced. We have revised and corrected our quotations, which will be found below:

MANILLA ROPE.

⅝ " "	12¼	"

CHEESE—There is a continued steady demand, and while there has been no further change in prices the recent advance is well maintained; it is not likely that prime stock will rule any lower for the present, as in addition to an increased home consumption there is a steady demand for export. We continue to quote at 13¼a13¾ to the wholesale trade, and one cent additional in a jobbing way.

CHESTNUTS—The receipts are falling off and the market is firmer, although the demand is by no means urgent; quotable at $3a3½ per bu.

CANNED GOODS—Tomatoes are held by packers at $1 75a1,80, but some of our jobbers, who bought early in the season prior to the advance, are offering to sell at rates packers are now asking. Little or nothing doing in Peaches and Corn.

CRANBERRIES—$10a11 per bbl.

CIDER—Is not in large supply here, but it is very dull, and that the stock is not large is because commission men are, and have been, discouraging consignments all fall; quotable at $3a4 ⅌ bbl.

DRIED FRUIT—There is, as noted in our last, some inquiry for Apples for export and the supply here is small; we continue to quote at 5a6c ⅌ lb. The stock in first hands is heavy, and the probability is that just as soon as the export trade is supplied the market will be very dull. Peaches in light supply, but there is no demand for them.

EGGS—The market for fresh has been fairly active during the week under review, and the recent advance is still maintained; we continue to quote at 27a28c. Pickeled are coming forward, but as yet there is not much call for them; both bakers and retailers preferring to pay the difference for fresh; quotable at 22a25c, as to brand.

FEATHERS—Sales job lots, 57; repacked, 60a63.

FLOUR—There is, as already intimated, an easier feeling in the Breadstuffs market, owing mainly to the disappearance of the war cloud, which, for a time, presented a very threatening appearance, but prices are pretty well maintained, nevertheless. Some people are still impressed with the belief that a general foreign war is almost inevitable—that it is only a question of a little time, and there is no doubt, if there should be, but there will be a heavy demand made upon the United States for Breadstuffs. Flour is much higher now than it was generally expected it would be until quite recently, and even, if the expectation referred to, in regard to war, should not be realized, the yield of Wheat not having proved near as large as expected, no immediate decline is expected. The consumption of spring wheat flours is comparatively light, for which several reasons can be assigned; one, and a very important one, is that they are a little higher than winters, that is for choice brands, and then again, the latter are much better in quality than they were last year, the winter wheat having been secured in good condition. Indeed, the probability is that with the exception of bakers, there will be but little inquiry for spring wheat flours during the present cereal year. Prices may be quoted—in a jobbing way—at $6,50a6,75 for good reliable brands of winter or spring wheat. Some dealers report that choice springs ought to bring $7, taking the cost at the source of supply into consideration. Patent process and fancy brands, $8a9. Rye flour, $4,50a5 per barrel.

GRAIN—The Grain market has been quite active during the past week at good healthy prices. The stimulus, caused by the war news from Europe, has stiffened the price of Wheat in all sections of the country; Chicago, which is the most sensitive market in this country, put Wheat up to $1,18 for No. 2 but, under the late news, which is not so war-like, prices have gone back to $1,10. While prices did not advance so much in winter Wheat markets, there is no disposition to recede as yet; in fact, there is likely to be a struggle between farmers and holders of winter Wheat, and the millers as to which party will have to yield. The millers claim they cannot pay the prices now asked and compete with spring Wheat flours; therefore, they are likely to run scarce of Wheat unless prices are advanced, or the farmers in the winter Wheat districts yield to circumstances and commence selling at market prices, as they are in the North-west. The stock of Wheat now in store in Chicago, is more than double what it was at this time last year, although the crop of spring Wheat is thought to be much below last year's crop. We quote Wheat at $1,28 to 1,30 for good sound red; white is very little inquired for, and would not bring more than 2 to 3c more than red; some lower grades sell at $1,20 to $1 25. The receipts of Corn are about equal to the demand; Shelled is selling at 57a58c from first hands, and 60c free on board cars for shipment. New ear has commenced arriving freely, and buyers are afraid to put it in store, although the quality is the best that has come to this market for some years, but too green to put in close bins or to shell, consequently sales are hard to be made in car; we heard of sales at prices ranging from 40 to 50c, one or two cars at 45c. If the receipts be liberal the coming week, prices will hardly range above 40c for new, although old Ear still sells at 56a57c. Oats—the receipts are more liberal, and prices a shade lower; 37a38 for mixed, and 38a39 for white. The receipts of Barley last week were the largest that have come in this season, and the quality as varied as the prices; some few cars of No. 1 Canada sold at $1,20; fall at $1,10a1,15; western spring, 80ca$1,10, as to quality and condition—most of it sells below $1. The inspectors at Chicago indicate that not one-third of the receipts go as high as No. 2 mostly No. 3, and rejected. Rye is generally bought up on arrival at 68a70, from first hands, with the usual advance to consumers.

GROCERIES—The market for Sugars continues firm, and while the demand is only fair prices are still tending upward; as will be seen we have advanced our quotations considerably since this day week. The stock of Rio Coffee in first hands, although increasing somewhat, continues light and the market is firm, but quiet and unchanged. New crop New Orleans Molasses has made its appearance here, although the supply as yet is light. Rice, Teas and Spices in fair request but unchanged. The stock of old crop N. O. Molasses in this market will soon be exhausted.

LEATHER—The market in general remains as last reported. In rough Leather there has been an improved demand, but prices remain unchanged. Harness is in fair demand. Calf skins are in moderate request, but to sell round lots or at wholesale, prices would have to be put low. Kip, if light weights, are improving, but heavy are still dull and low. Upper can only be sold at low figures and must be of good quality. We quote:

No. 2	.70
Best White Miners	.61

These are the jobbing prices—round lots can be bought at a shade lower prices.

POTATOES—The receipts have been quite liberal and prices are lower; dealers nearly all report that they have commenced to rot, and this being the case, holders are anxious to sell, and buyers, for the same reason, are buying only to supply their immediate wants. It has been customary with many retailers and consumers as well to fill their 'cellars' at this season of the year for winter use, but for the reason stated, there will be very few put away for future use. Quotations may be given at 55a65c per bu on track, as to quality. Sweets unchanged at $2,50a3,50 ⅌ bbl, the outside figure for prime Jerseys.

POULTRY—Live chickens selling by the coop at 40a50c ⅌ pair, according to size; dressed, 12a13c, ⅌ lb. Dressed Turkeys, 16a17c ⅌ lb. The weather at present is unfavorable for dressed poultry.

PROVISIONS—There is a fair business for this season of the year but prices are easy, and, as will be seen, we have again reduced our quotations Our advices from the packing centres, including Cincinnati and Chicago, indicate that prices, both of Hogs and the products, are likely to rule still lower, hence general business is reported dull. ALLEGHENY LIVE STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, October 30, 1876.

CATTLE.

The number on sale was less than it has been for several weeks, but fully equal to the demand; the market was generally reported a little more active but there was no quotable or general improvement in prices. There was a fair attendance of butchers, but they nearly all reported the meat markets as having been very unsatisfactory last week, the demand, owing largely to the warm weather having been curtailed considerably, hence they did not want or buy as many cattle as usual.

The eight cars of Chicago cattle did no good, as they cost more than those of the preceding week, and did not bring any better prices. The average quality was common as compared with last Monday, although there were enough of all grades to meet the demand, and at the close there were a few odds and ends left unsold. Prime to extra butcher cattle, 5½a5¾; medium to good, 4a5; fat cows, 3a4, bulls, 2½a3½. Veal calves continue scarce, but there are not many wanted; quotable at 5½a 6½c.

The stock on sale was reported as follows:

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY October 30, 1876.

The Crude market was much firmer, and prices as compared with Saturday were considerably higher; United certificates advanced to $3,35, but later in the day they receded to $3,33a3,33½. The feeling is more hopeful, and this probably had something to do with the improvement in prices.

Refined also firm, and there were offers to buy New York delivery at 25, but the Combination refiners are firm and will accept nothing less than 26, and the indications are, that they will be able to get their price before long, as it is thought the exporters cannot hold out much longer.

Sheble, one of the owners of the City of Alton, is severely ill at his residence in this city, but he was some better to day. The Glencoe begins loading for New Orleans in the Pool Line on Monday, and Capt. Adams is talking of loading the Whale and barges outside. The Kate Kinney and R. W. Dugan are also talking of loading for the south next week, to remain below during the winter. The K. N. Line is doing a good business, though the water is down to 4 feet between here and Keokuk.

WE clip the following biographical sketch of the late Capt. Edward Evans, whose sudden death was noticed in the GAZETTE of yesterday, from the Cincinnati Commercial: The deceased was born in Pittsburgh and reared in Brownsville, Pa. He commenced his career on the river in 1850 as clerk of the steamer Cape May, with Capt. J. Nels. Snowden. He was also clerk of the Herald, Jas. Park and Marengo. The first steamer he commanded was the Gazelle, in the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati trade. He afterward had charge of the Aurora, Defender, (sunk at Laconia, Miss.,) and Westmoreland (one of the first steamers fired into by the rebels at Napoleon, Ark., on the 27th of April, 1861, when one passenger was killed), in the Cincinnati and New Orleans trade. The Exchange was the last steamer Capt. Evans commanded. He was associated with Capt. John L. Rhoads in steamboating for eighteen years—from 1856 to '74. He retired to his farm two years ago. The deceased leaves a wife and 6 children to mourn his loss, and a brother, Mr. Richard Evans, Vice President of the Hemingray Glass Co., residing in Covington, Ky., and a sister, Mrs. Hughes, residing in Cincinnati. Mr. Richard Evans left for Pittsburgh last night by rail to attend the funeral of his brother. Capt. Ed. Evans was a genial, warm-hearted man, extensively known and highly esteemed by all who knew him.

Smythe's Last Excursions.

The time for visiting the great Exposition is drawing to a close, and those who have not yet gone must make up their minds quickly. Smythe's two closing excursions afford the last chances for cheap rates over the Pennsylvania Railroad. One of these will start to-morrow (Wednesday) morning and the other next Wednesday; and the fare is only seven dollars. The trip over the mountains is alone worth that money. Remember, these are the two last excursions over the Pennsylvania Railroad. Pack your satchel and start to-morrow.

Judge Hampton Suffering With Paralysis.

We regret to learn that Judge Hampton, who occupies such a prominent place in the history of Allegheny county, was stricken with paralysis yesterday morning, and now lies at his residence in Wilkinsburg in a very precarious condition. This is the second time that the venerable Judge has been afflicted in this manner, and great fears are felt that he will not survive. His loss would be deeply felt, not only by his family but the entire community.

Judge Hampton came to this city in 1832 from Somerset county, and during his residence here held many important offices. He served in Congress for two terms, from 1844 to 1848, and was elected to the District Court bench in 1852. This position he held continuously for twenty years, resigning in 1873. Since that time he has lived a retired life. He had always taken an active part in politics, and was an acknowledged leader of his party.

A HOT CHASE.

A Vengeful Husband in Pursuit of a Would-Be Destroyer of His Wife's Purity.

Allegheny produced a sensation last evening. It occurred in front of the Mayor's office, and was witnessed by a number of citizens and policemen with feelings of keenest delight. About five o'clock a lady entered the southeast corner of the yard that surrounds the municipal building, and was walking toward the postoffice when she was joined by a man who had evidently been waiting for her. They had taken but a few steps together when another man entered the gate fronting on Federal street and, approaching the pair, threw off his coat and prepared for war. These hostile demonstrations clearly were not relished by man No. 1, and he retreated, at first in good order, but he got panic stricken as his conscience smote him, and the way he dusted through the City Hall yard, out on to Ohio street and down toward the Penitentiary would have brought the blush of shame to the cheeks of Ochiltree. Man No. 2 followed close on his heels, and the chase becoming interesting the police took a hand in it. The latter overtook the vengeful pursuer at the corner of Arch street and arrested him. He was brought back to the Mayor's office, and upon being interrogated as to his object he said the man whom he had followed had had the temerity to make an appointment with his wife, and that she had informed him of the fact. He instructed her to meet the fellow, in compliance with his request, at the time and place fixed upon, and said he would not be far away when the meeting took place. It was in the execution of this programme that he chased the follow, but the accomplishment of his purpose was prevented by the police who captured him. He gave his name as Wilson. After listening to this story the Mayor discharged him, inasmuch as he had been guilty of no great offense, but on the contrary had only done what any one else would have done under the circumstances.

Centennial Expenditures.

Almost every family is out of pocket to the tune of forty or fifty dollars, which are debited to the Centennial, but which may be regained in a few months by seeking out and purchasing at those stores which make a point of marking their goods to the lowest possible margin of profit. In the boot and shoe business, this house is R. Taggart's, 129 Federal street, Allegheny, where is kept a full line of A No. 1 qualities, varied in assortment and at prices twenty per cent. lower than any other house.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Local Political Notes—Meetings in and About the Cities.

PROF. W. J. POPE, the campaign warbler, has been engaged for the remainder of the campaign by the Republican Committee.

THE following vote of the telegraph operators of the River Division of the Allegheny Valley Railroad was taken Friday: Hayes and Wheeler, 33; Tilden and Hendricks, 11.

REPUBLICAN MEETING AT ALADDIN.

MR. EDITOR—It appears that some of the candidates think Aladdin too small a place to notice, as several of them have failed as yet to pay us a visit, which I fear will tell against them in November. Upon the evening of the 26th at an early hour the town was tastefully decorated, flags and colored lights were displayed at nearly every house. By six o'clock the people began to gather in from the surrounding county, at six and a half o'clock the Hayes and Wheeler club, of Aladdin, had assembled and marched to Schenley where they were joined by the clubs from Leechburg, Freeport and Allegheny township, numbering about three hundred. The procession was then formed in line under command of J. C. Freeman, when the procession was marched through the streets amid the cheers of the crowd, and finally halted in front of the speakers stand, when we were greeted with a song from the Freeport glee club. The meeting was called to order by nominating J. R. Magill President, and W. A. Morrow Secretary, after which the chairman introduced Col. Jos. Haymaker of Pittsburgh, who held the attention of the crowd for one hour and a half, in discussing the issues of the campaign, at the close of which three rousing cheers were given for the speaker, and cries of Greer! Greer! were responded to by that gentleman himself in a short but pressing address, showing the importance of a full turnout of the Republicans at the polls on the 7th of November, after which three cheers for the whole Republican ticket were given. There was music in abundance by the Leechburg Martial Band at the head of the column, the Freeport Band followed by the Freeport marching club and the Walnut Ridge Band followed by the Aladdin and Allegheny township clubs. Peace and order prevailed during the entire meeting and every one went home well pleased with the meeting. Credit is due to Mr. J. C. Freeman in trying to make the meeting a success and for his liberal hospitality to those who had come from a distance and he will long be remembered by them.

SHELLBARK.

MONROEVILLE.

A very large and enthusiastic Republican meeting was held at the school house in Monroeville, Patton township, on Saturday night last, and addresses were delivered by Thomas Culbutson, Esq., and John C. Haymaker, Esq., (both members of the Pittsburgh bar,) which carried conviction to the mind of every hearer. Put Patterson township down solid for the whole ticket. Col. Bayne's popularity in this township has never been surpassed by that of any other candidate for office in this county, and the little township which gave twenty-eight of her children on the battlefield that this nation might live, will never support a Democrat for Congress.

FOURTH WARD, ALLEGHENY.

The upper end of the Fourth ward, Allegheny, was the scene of a very large Republican mass meeting last night, which was held at the corner of Maine and Chestnut streets, at the base of the magnificent Hayes and Wheeler pole in that locality, around which an excellent speakers' stand had been erected.

The meeting was organized as follows:

President—H. McNeill.

Vice Presidents—John Kown, Chris. Zeighurn, Christ. Kenewig, Le Watters, Wm. Bink, Lewis Matson, Victor Zisenger, Peter Watters, W. F. Miller, Lewis Moul, David Woodroff, William Heckman, A. Lippert.

The meeting was addressed by the President and by G. W. Elphinstone, H. A. Collier and A. Blakely, Esqrs. The speakers were all of the stirring kind, and elicited great applause on the part of the large audience.

M'DERMOTT'S WAYS.

One of the Tricks of the Democracy in Allegheny.

How Twenty-three Paupers Were Registered and Assessed, but Will not Vote—A Suspicion of Fraudulent Tax Receipts.

To say that the Democracy of Allegheny county are working frantically for success on the 7th prox. is an axiomatic phrase. Not a stone is being left unturned in their mad search for credulous worms to bait the saccharine-pointed hooks, with which they are angling for usufructuary power. Pushed as they are to resort to all kinds of dodges, it is not to be wondered at that the would-be iconoclasts occasionally do things the legitimacy of which is questionable, to say the least. The fact that a wholesale attempt was made to place fraudulent tax receipts in Philadelphia is a matter of public notoriety. False registration has also been charged, among other things, against the Democratic leaders. But it remains for Allegheny county Democrats to attempt the most astonishing and novel method for increasing the number of their votes. While theoretically, perhaps, the law does not contemplate the disfranchisement of a man for the crime of extreme poverty, yet inferentially and indirectly it no doubt does. The organic law of the State clearly defines the qualifications constituting a voter. One of these is that he must be a taxpayer within the Commonwealth—not only liable to taxation, but he must pay his taxes. When a man becomes a pauper, when he becomes an inmate of some public institution for charity, when he is dependent upon the State for support, it is prima facie evidence that he is unable to do anything toward the support of the State, and is therefore not liable to taxation, and loses the prerogative of the tax-payer—the right of franchise. This is but an equitable conclusion, and one to which no objection can be urged.

M'DERMOTT'S WAY.

Fronting on Church avenue and Washington street, Allegheny, is a charitable institution, known as the "Home for the Aged," or "Little Sisters of the Poor," maintained and controlled by the Catholic church. In this institution are now sheltered forty-seven aged and infirm men, utterly unable to do anything toward their own support. Last spring the assessor of the district, Mr. Gardner, called at the Home and inquired how many, if any, men were there liable to taxation. He was told, and very rightly, by the matron, or mother superior, that there were none there but paupers, who were not able to support themselves, and therefore certainly not able to pay taxes. Mr. Gardner, as a matter of course, accepted the statement, and thought no more of it. Several weeks ago Mr. J. J. McDermott, who is the Democratic candidate for Assembly in the Allegheny district, bethought himself that within the walls of this Home lay a bonanza for him, and straightway repaired thither. Of the lady who has charge of the establishment he asked permission to see the men in regard to voting, and it was given him. He made a thorough canvass of the institution, and found among the 47 inmates 26 who consented to vote for him in case they had an opportunity. These 26 names he took on September 6th to Wm. Shuff, the election Assessor for the district, and requested him to register them. This Shuff refused to do, because the men were not present themselves, and because they were paupers. Nothing more was said about the matter until October 5th, when, as the following copies of the court records will show, McDermott took further action:

EXEMPLIFICATION OF RECORD.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, County of Allegheny, } sct.

Among the records and proceedings of the Court of Common Pleas No. 1, in and for the County of Allegheny, and State of Pennsylvania, the following may be found as matter of file and of record at No. 411, December Term, 1876, to wit:

APPEARANCE DOCKET ENTRY.

In re., petition of J. J. McDermott, for Rule on Wm. Shuff, Assessor Second District, Fourth ward, Allegheny. } Oct. 5, 1876. Rule granted on Wm. Shuff to appear and show cause why the within named parties have not been assessed in the Second district, Fourth ward, Allegheny City. Returnable on October 5, 1876, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

BY THE COURT.

Names of additional voters, Second district, Fourth ward, Allegheny City, given to Wm. Shuff, Assessor, to be assessed and registered September 6, 1876:

Patrick Rea, old man, No. 30 Washington street, Allegheny; Jacob Reser, do.; Stephen Sweeney, do.; James Breen, do.; James McCafferty, do.; Matthew Smith, do.; Richard Saville, do.; Owen Trainor, do.; Wm. Vaughan, do.; Jeremy Devoy, do.; Patrick Walls, do.; Baldasser Zies, do.; Owen Boyle, do.; John Diebold, do.; Dennis Devlin, do.; John Folk, do.; Adam Gutlein, do.; Peter Hodson, do.; Michael Kearney, Henry Kearney, do.; Bastil Lavich, do.; John Morford, do.; Hugh McMahon, do.; Daniel McCreery, do.; Francis McElroy, do.; Michael Ober, do.

Allegheny County ss.

Personally comes John J. McDermott, who being sworn saith he inspected the registry books in the possession of Wm. Shuff, the election assessor of the Second District, Fourth ward, Allegheny, and found therein, on September 6, 1876, the names of the foregoing parties, but none of them have been returned on the list of assessments of said District.

JOHN J. MCDERMOTT.

Sworn and subscribed before me October 5th, 1876.

B. F. KENNEDY,
Prothonotary.

A QUESTION OF VERACITY.

To this rule Mr. Shuff made the following answer:

In the matter of the non-return of Patrick Rea et al. No. 411, December Term, 1876.

Allegheny County ss.

Personally came Wm. Shuff, who in answer to the petition on which the rule in this case was granted, says that the statements set forth in the petition and affidavit of John J. McDermott are incorrect in the following particulars, to wit:

First—The petitioner, John J. McDermott, on the 6th of September, 1876, brought to respondent a list of names to be assessed, respondent then being in attendance at the polls in said district for the purpose of making registration of voters as required by law. That said McDermott requested respondent to register and assess said persons whose names were contained on said list, which respondent refused to do unless the said persons would come in person to be registered according to law. That said persons, if such persons reside in said district, refused and neglected to come before respondent in person to be registered, and their names were never put on the registry list of said district and are not on said list now, and said McDermott never saw their names on said list as alleged in his petition.

Second—Respondent further says that said McDermott informed him that said men whose names were contained in said list, resided in a charitable institution called "The Little Sisters of the Poor," and respondent was informed and believes they are paupers and not entitled to a residence for the purposes of voting in said district.

Respondent therefore prays to be hence dismissed with his costs, &c.

WM. SHUFF.

Sworn to and subscribed this 6th day of October, 1876.

B. F. KENNEDY,
Prothonotary.

In rebuttal of this answer, McDermott took one of his attorneys, Mr. J. B. Coyle, to the Home, and obtained the sworn affidavits of twenty-three of the twenty-six men given above, that they had been residents of the district for from two months to four years. These men were:

Owen Boyle,
Dennis Derlin,
Adam Gutlein,
Michael Kearney,
Bastil Lavich,
Hugh McMahon,
Francis McElroy,
Patrick Rea,
Stephen Sweeney,
Richard Saville,
Wm. Vaughan,
John Diebold,
John Folk,
Peter Hodson,
Henry Kearney,
John Morford,
Daniel McCreery,
Michael Ober,
Jacob Reser,
Mathew Smith,
Owen Trainor,
Patrick Walls.
Baldasser Zies.

Following the affidavits of these were those of Mr. Coyle, Mr. McDermott and Mr. Shuff, who certified that they had witnessed the signatures. The court, therefore, on that day, October 7th, directed that the lists be corrected and the twenty-three names be placed upon the registry and the assessment lists of the district. Upon the same day Mr. James Irwin paid the county tax of the entire number.

A QUESTION OR TWO.

A very evident point that will present itself in the first affidavit of McDermott and the answer of Mr. Shuff, it is not necessary to enlarge upon.

The second question that presents itself is, are pauper inmates of a charitable institution residents? The court by its order in the matter apparently asserts that they are, yet the opposite has always been maintained. A person removing from a city ward to the city or county poor house, is not considered to have changed his residence if he should remain there for twenty years. Why should it be different in the case of a private alms house?

Another question is, did those persons who paid the county tax of these twenty-three paupers, also pay their city tax, or do they intend to do it? If an indigent inmate of an alms house in the city is liable for county tax he is just as liable for city tax, and if his name appears upon the county tax list it must appear upon the city. Do these men who inveigled these unsuspecting paupers into this dilemma intend to stay by them, or will they allow them to suffer, or put the city or county to the trouble of exonerating them, when again they are called upon to pay?

And yet another question. Since the twenty-three inmates who will vote the Democratic ticket are liable to taxation, so are the rest of the forty-seven—will the generous McDermott and his friends pay their taxes too?

THE HOME VISITED.

But the supreme beauty of this pauper transaction of Mr. McDermott's is that it will do him no good. A reporter of the GAZETTE called at the Home yesterday afternoon and gathered several interesting additional facts. His queries were met by the Mother Superior with caution at first, as she first desired to know why they were put. The reporter acknowledged that he did not come from Mr. McDermott or from the Democratic party, but did not intimate that he was a reporter. After understanding the matter somewhat the lady proceeded to give a synopsis of Mr. McDermott's action in the case. He had first come there and by her permission examined the men, and gotten the twenty-six names. The second time he came he told her that he intended to bring the matter before the Court. She objected, but after being assured by Mr. McD. that it would in no wise interfere with or injure the institution, she submitted. She gave her consent, however, not understanding the case, or knowing the law. She did not understand at first that in order that the men could vote they must first pay their taxes. This ignorance in the matter, was from her calling and seclusion in a degree natural, and then it also is to be remembered that she has been in this country from France, her native land, a comparatively short period. When she learned what action Mr. McDermott had taken, and that the men would have to pay their taxes, she was naturally somewhat incensed. She had no particular objections to the men voting, but the tax paying part involved several considerations of moment. The Home is entirely supported by the contributions of the charitable, gathered for the most part by the solicitations of the Sisters. No boarders whatever are admitted to the institution, and no one who is able to maintain himself or herself outside.

THE GAME SPOILED.

It is a positive rule of the institution that no money or other recompense shall be received directly for the maintenance of any inmate. If the friends of some one who partakes of the bounty of the Home see fit to contribute anything to the Home it is accepted, as is all other charity, but not as a remuneration. Hence, the lady said, they are decidedly averse to having the impression go abroad, whether with or without foundation, that the Home receives boarders. If the male inmates vote it is known that their taxes must be paid, but it is not known that they are paid by some one for the sake of their votes. It will be said when the sisters are soliciting aid: "Why, you do not need charity. You keep a boarding house. The men pay their taxes and they can pay their board." This consideration, therefore, influenced her to question the male inmates. She found that four had paid their taxes within two years before entering the Home. These four will be allowed to vote, but no others. So it will be seen that Mr. McDermott's trouble was all for nothing.

COURTEOUS TREATMENT.

The GAZETTE representative was treated with the utmost courtesy by the lady, and when he had concluded the conversation in regard to the matter on which he came, was requested by her to look over the building. He gladly accepted the invitation, feeling the more honored by it that she was unaware that he was connected with the press in any manner. There are now ninety-one indigent inmates of the Home, about equally divided between old men and old women. To accommodate all these requires great economy of space, as a matter of course, but it is surprising how well this was managed. Every portion of the establishment, the beds, the floors, everything was scrupulously clean; and comfortable without being gaudy or ostentatious. The inmates, too, appeared more than usually cheerful, and gave evidence of kind and careful treatment.

But this is digressing with a vengeance. To return to the Democrats. What appears at present to be a well founded rumor, is current that numbers of fraudulent tax receipts have been issued to Democrats in Allegheny. The matter will be further investigated, and the public enlightened in due time.

Mr. FLINN offered a resolution authorizing the issuance of a warrant for $52.50 to Jno. O'Keefe, assignee of H. Freyvogle, for castings delivered to the Butler street sewer. Referred.

Business from Select Council was taken up and all concurred in except a resolution for two gas lamps on Stanton avenue. The following ordinances, &c., were concurred in: Granting George Duncan & Sons the right to erect a frame addition on Tenth street, South Side; resolution for a warrant in favor of Capt. E. Y. Brecht for $190.07 for powder used in firing a salute on the Fourth of July last; Messrs. McClarren, Torrence & Hughes were appointed on the special committee having in charge the matter of the erection of a bridge across the Pennsylvania railroad at Twenty-eighth street.

Mr. NEEB presented a resolution for the re-payment to the Security Trust Company of $50.75, taxes erroneously paid by that company. Referred.

Adjourned.

BREVITIES.

····Select Council refused to declare N. P. Sawyer's seat vacant.

····The residence of Mr. E. S. Lytle on Butler street was entered on Sunday and robbed of some small pieces of jewelry.

····The Pittsburgh & Manchester passenger railway is putting down new timbers and irons on the lower portion of Pennsylvania avenue.

····Detectives Demmell and Long yesterday started for Franklin with McCarty and Edwards, the jewelry burglars. The diamond ring was not found.

····Christ. Smith, 379 Ohio street, and four children are suffering from small pox. Another child died with it a few days ago. Dr. Cole is looking after them.

····The South Side singing societies will give an entertainment and a ball on Thursday evening, in Odd Fellows' Hall, for the benefit of the sufferers by the Zug's mill explosion.

····The Printing Committee of City Councils will hold a meeting this afternoon. The contract for printing and binding 200 copies of the rules of Councils will be awarded.

····There was no meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday, for want of a quorum. The next meeting will be on the second Monday in November.

····The Pleasant Valley Street Railway Company is negotiating for an exchange of the bobtailed cars used on the line, for cars about four feet longer. The improvement will be appreciated by the public.

····That was not a pensive thief who refused to steal Mr. Calhoun's gold pen while rummaging through his house on Butler street on Sunday. Perhaps he thought it would be a wrong he could not write.

····Some mischievous scamp cut one of the ropes used for hoisting the brick and mortar for the new smoke stacks at Negley's Run pumping works. The party is suspected and will probably be arrested.

····The Fifteenth ward Democrats allege that the Sixteenth ward fellows went snooks with them on political expenses, and now refuse to "duff up." A law suit is probable. Thus peace reigns in Warsaw.

····The new ordinance positively prohibits any person from using the Market House as a butcher shop or store house for pelts and shin bones. Why not pass an amendment rendering all meat sold in the building juicy, tender and free from hairs?

····Another prisoner in the penitentiary, who does not desire that even his number shall be known, has given all his earnings from work done over time in the prison to the Zug sufferers. This amount, with that from prisoner No. 4,818, makes $9.25 given by the prisoners.

····An old farmer from near Chicago was victimized in this city by a spiel mark man to the extent of $20. The operation was performed on Liberty street, where the sharper, as usual, suddenly remembered he had to pay a bill, and didn't want to use his "gold." The victim returned to Chicago yesterday afternoon.

····A lady passenger on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad jumped from a train near Myersdale while it was running at a speed of thirty-five miles an hour. She wanted to get off at Myersdale, but the train did not stop, and she had concluded to go to the next station, but changed her mind. Strange to say she was not seriously injured.

····You can't blow your steam any more just for fun. The ordinance passed yesterday puts a stop to all such nonsense. It provides that steam whistles shall not be "blowed" within the city limits, under a heavy penalty, save and except as regular calls and signals. Were they ever "blowed" for any other purpose, except on Centennial occasions?

····One of the mules pulling car 38 on the Pleasant Valley Railway, while coming down Anderson street, Allegheny, yesterday, fell and was pushed along a considerable distance by the car. The passengers tumbled out with tumultuous haste, fearing that the mule's heels were going to hoist the floor of the car.

····The Allegheny Survey Committee met last night and approved bills to the amount of about $400. Among them was one for the payment of the viewers who assessed the damages caused by the opening of Monroe street, in the Butcher's Run district. In this instance the payment of the viewers was ordered by Councils, though the general custom is to require the property holders to foot all such bills.

····But little business was transacted at yesterday's meeting of the Temperance Alliance. The Committee on Business reported meetings in Allegheny, at Bellevue, and on the South Side, all of which had been well attended, the South Side meeting having over a hundred persons present. Mr. Galbraith suggested that persons be appointed to stand at the polls and solicit votes at the coming election.

····Mr. Kimball, agent for L. H. Evert & Co.'s illustrated history of Allegheny county, is in trouble. He served summons upon about twenty persons who refused to take the book, requiring them to appear before Squire Snodgrass, of Braddock's. The Squire alleges that he never issued them, and a constable is hunting Mr. Kimball with consent of D. L. Smith, who will look into it.

····The statement yesterday morning that the B. & C. Road could not furnish sufficient transportation to clubs desiring to go to McKeesport, Saturday night, was an error. The company took up thirty car loads and could have furnished as many more cars had the committee ordered them. It was a mistake of the committee and no fault of the railroad company that so many clubs were disappointed.

····Hugus & Hacke are determined not to be mud bound any longer. Councils yesterday granted them the privilege of putting down a vulcanite pavement in front of their property on Market street. They will do this out of their own pocket, and agree not to plead it when the city comes to pave the street. Thus it has come at last. Private citizens have to pave portions of the most public thoroughfare, in order to make it comfortable for people to reach their place of business.

····Braun's Centennial excursion over the B. & O. R. R. yesterday morning carried about 1,000 persons. The excursion left in three sections, besides the regular train, making four in all. Smythe took out 860 people over the Pennsylvania Railroad from this city. Besides there were 400 excursionists from Little Washington, and 750 from the P. Ft. W. & C. Railroad. Another excursion over the B. & O. road leaves the night of the 7th prox., and on Wednesday morning after the election a special excursion to see the closing exercises of the Centennial will leave the city over the same road.

····Noah Bruner made information before Alderman McMasters yesterday charging Henry L. Beaver and John Murdoch with conspiracy to defraud. He alleges that he sold the accused a patent right, taking in part payment a judgment note for $150. Last August he received a letter from them requesting him to come to Allegheny city where they reside, as they desired to see him on business of importance. He came from his home in Westmoreland county, and as he alleges, defendants took him to a room in the fourth story of a building, when they compelled him by threats and menace to deliver up the note which they burned. Warrant issued.

Court Brevities.

THE Supreme Court yesterday refused the application for a special allocatur in the case of Best, the oil barrel informer, as will be seen by our Court reports.

DAVID DRUMMOND entered suit in Common Pleas No. 1 yesterday against Florence Kramer, to recover damages in the sum of $10,000 for an alleged malicious prosecution.

THE jury in both of the Common Pleas Courts were discharged yesterday, the intention being not to have any more jury trials for two weeks, in consequence of the fact that Allegheny county cases are now being heard before the Supreme Court, and engaging the time of the lawyers.

JOSEPH C. YOUNG, ESQ., on motion of John Barton, Esq., was admitted to practice in the Supreme Court. Mr. Young was admitted to the bar of this county some eighteen years ago, after which he went to Chicago, where he has built up a lucrative practice. He has returned and will practice in this city.

THE re-argument before the Supreme Court in the case of Frew et al., plaintiffs in error, against Clark, which was to have been heard yesterday morning, was postponed, in consequence of the serious illness of Hon. Moses Hampton, which prevented John H. Hampton, Esq., of counsel, from taking part in the argument.

THERE was an argument in Common Pleas No 1, yesterday, on the rule to show cause why certain names on the registry list in the First ward should not be stricken off. It appears that six colored men were registered who do not board at the places at which the registry indicates. Messrs. Duff and Bailey appear for the motion and C. S. Fetterman contra.

SUIT was entered yesterday in Common Pleas Court No. 2 by John A. Ellsler, against Charles Fechter, to recover damages for an alleged breach of contract. The plaintiff is manager of the Cleveland Opera House, and he sets forth in his affidavit that he contracted with the defendant, who is an actor, to play at the Cleveland Opera House for one week, in January, 1875, and that he expended $59 in printing in consequence of said agreement, and that the defendant failed to fill his engagement, whereby the plaintiff was damaged to the extent of $1,000. A capias was issued.

PERSONAL.

Judge Hampton is seriously ill. He is suffering from a paralytic stroke.

Mr. J. T. Shryock, of the Zanesville, Ohio, Advocate, and an old Pittsburgh printer, having been connected with the Spirit of the Age in 1844, dropped in upon us last night. He is on his way home from the Centennial.

Rev. Dr. J. G. Morris, of Baltimore, will deliver an address this evening in the Lutheran church at the corner of Stockton avenue and Arch street, Allegheny, on the occasion of the celebration by the congregation of the 358th anniversary of the Reformrtion. Dr. Morris has made the Reformation a life long study, and he is perhaps better qualified to talk learnedly about it than any other minister in this country.

Timely Suggestion Worth Heeding.

Few are aware that the "Keystone Hotel Company," under the capable supervision of Colonel E. J. Unger, President, has opened a large, elegant dining room and restaurant at the West Philadelphia Depot of the Pennsylvania railroad, Mr. T. R. Haley, Superintendent. Visitors to Philadelphia on business and pleasure can enjoy a nice, quiet meal, and rest and refresh themselves before entering the city proper. The same happy arrangement exists at Jersey City, the termination of the New Jersey lines, under the care of Mr. C. V. Federson. The superintendence at both points is capital, and in keeping with the admirable supervision of President Unger, who conducts in person the Union Depot Hotel, and resides here.

Pittsburgh Opera House.

Mr. Fechter closed a moderately successful engagement Saturday evening, and last evening Mr. George F. Rowe made his debut in this city, commencing a week's engagement, appearing in the role of Waifton Stray in "Brass," one of the best society comedies that has been produced for several years. It is rich in sentiment and replete with genuine humor and sparkling wit, and is original in both style and matter. It is a decided improvement on the wishy-washy stuff with which the public has been bored in the shape of society plays, most of which are written for the benefit of the star. The work is well distributed throughout the cast, and consequently requires a company of more than ordinary talent to properly present it. The play is most elegantly mounted, most of the scenery being new and prepared expressly for the piece. The cast last night was excellent with perhaps one exception. Miss Kate Fletcher as Sybil Hawker was unexceptionably good, as was Miss Hastings in Alice Masham and Miss Bernard in the somewhat difficult role of Mary Markson. Mr. Stockwell received a fair share of praise which was justly merited. The audience was fair, and we feel confident that it will be much larger before the week closes, as the piece is truly meritorious, and is well presented.

Library Hall.

Miss Dargon did not play to a large house last night, but it was an exceedingly demonstrative one, her delineation of the part of Queen Mary in Tennyson's new play winning her a call before the curtain at the close of every act. And these tributes she certainly merited, for she most unquestionably possesses histronic talent of a high order. The company supporting her is an admirable one, and includes a number of most excellent actors, among whom are Joseph Nagle, Chas. Loveday, James H. Taylor and George Beck, who enacted the parts of Simon Renard, Bishop Gardiner, Philip and Courtenay. This evening "London Assurance" will be performed.
